

APRIL NEWSLETTER

Spotlight on Awareness

Autism Acceptance Month

Advancing inclusion, awareness, and support for individuals diagnosed with autism.

World Autism Day April 2nd

Occupational Therapy Month

Acknowledge the cultural and social contributions of nearly four million Arab Americans in the United States.

Black Maternal Health Week April 11-17

A campaign to raise awareness, mobilize advocacy, and build community to improve Black maternal health by reducing preventable maternal mortality among Black mothers through policy, equity, and better care.

Family Events

First Friday Cherry St Pier

April 3rd 10am

Enjoy open art exhibits, artist studio tours, and markets with a beautiful view of the Delaware River

Learn more here

First Sunday Family Day Jazz

April 5th 10am

Free admission with activities, jazz music, and performances

Learn more here

Keswick Car & Music Festival

April 13th 9am

Outdoor festival with antique cars, live music, food trucks, crafters, vendors and more

Learn more here

International Spring Festival

April 18th 10am

bring awareness of various cultures in the community with activities, art, music, and food

Learn more here

Resources

Family and Community Engagement (FACE)

Academic support Learn more here

CHOP Support Groups

Health & wellness support Learn more here

Gemma Services

Family and community support Learn more here

Temple Families First

Education on early intervention Learn more here

Sensory Events

Autism Acceptance Day at the Philadelphia Zoo

April 19 10am Learn more here

Sensory Friendly Mornings Academy of Natural Science

April 12 9am Learn more here

Please Touch Museum

April 19 9am Learn more here

VCFS

Tip of The Month

When attending community events, bring a familiar toy or snack to help your child stay regulated in new environments.

Follow us on social media for more events & resources!

Village Care Family Services Inc.  @villagecareearlyintervention